Agent refers to his report for October 27th, giving certain information he had obtained from a confidential source. Agent also refers to Bureau letter initialed GFR-MMP of the 4th instant asking for further information concern [redacted] mentioned in Agent's report Of October 27th, as knowing prior to the explosion of the bomb in Ambassador Herrick's suite in Paris that there was a plan on foot to endeavor to assassinate American and other diplomats in Europe as a protest against the execution of SACCO and VANZETTI. The Bureau expressly requested information as to the manner in which [redacted] could be located in New York and any further information concerning an alleged meeting at Frankfurt-on-Main, Germany, of Communists and Anarchists where plans are alleged to have been made for the assassination of American and other diplomats in Europe and where one [redacted] was sent to Paris in that connection. Agent again took this matter up with his medium of information and was informed that [redacted] address is not known to the informant. However, he is alleged to be the head of the Italian Socialist Federation and is well known at the Italian Socialist Federation headquarters in Brooklyn. It is stated that [redacted] is not an easy man to approach or handle; that he has uncovered many confidential men. [redacted] Informant further states that if an 8 operative, who can play the part of an Italian radical, was to call on [redacted] and tell [redacted] that a group of Italian radicals in Astoria, Flushing, Mount Vernon, or some other town near New York City, would like to ascertain if b7c [redacted] could arrange to speak for them and explain the operating method of the Workers' Council to them, it might result in getting in touch with [redacted] The informant further says that another safe way would be to have some one in Rochester, Syracuse or Buffalo address a letter in the Italian language to [redacted] in care of the Workers' Council, 80 East 11th St. and ask him if he could come to a certain city and explain the Workers' Council to a group of Italians; he believed [redacted] would answer such a letter and give his home or office address.

Agent would point out that these suggestions are those of the informant and, of course, the agents or operatives who handled this matter would probably be directed by the Bureau as to their method of procedure in such a situation as that.

The informant knew nothing further concerning the alleged meeting at Frankfurt-on-Main, Germany than that outlined in Agent's report of October 27th, nor did he know just how [redacted] b7c could be reached in New York, but stated that certainly [redacted] has

Referring to Bureau letter dated November 5th, initialled G.F. R., to which was attached copy of a report of Agent Morton for October 27th, concerning the Sacco-Vanzetti Case, you are hereby advised that the only information this office possesses at this time concerning [redacted] is the result of the investigation made in the report submitted by [redacted] on a man of that name who as a member of an Italian radical group was believed to be in the employ [redacted]

Concerning Carlo Tresca, having knowledge of the placing of the bomb at Ambassador Hettrick's suite in Paris prior to the explosion there, this appears to be without foundation, as it is a known fact that Tresca is not looked upon by members of the Anarchistic group as a true comrade, but he is used only to secure financial aid for Italians of Anarchistic tendencies, therefore it is unlikely that he would have had previous knowledge of the attempt to kill Ambassador Hettrick.

Dear Sir:

Your letter WJB/JJ of the 29th ult. with information concerning Italian residents of this city is received and these men will be kept under police surveillance. [There have already been four meetings here in the interests of Sacco and Vanzetti and the speakers at the last two used quite strong language.

Friday night, October 28th, a meeting was held in Garibaldi Hall, the first speaker being Giuseppe Tomasselli, of 127 1/2 Arthur Ave., employed at the Turks Head Club here, described as about 28 years old, 150 pounds weight, 5' 6 1/2" tall, medium complexion. Domenico Mareille, 61 Vinton St., this city, was the next speaker and the last one was Luigi Saruti, whose address we have been unable to get.

Last evening there was an attempt made to hold an open air meeting by a man who gave his name as Virginio Della, Weir Village, Mass., an Italian about 45 years old. He had done some talking before the arrival of the police and after being told that he must stop asked to be allowed to make an explanation in which he urged the Italians to mobilize. No collection was taken at this meeting although a collection was taken at the meeting held Friday evening.]

Should we get any information of value to you it will be transmitted at once.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter dated October 25, 1921, relative to possible radical activities during the armament limitation conference and the Sacco and Vanzetti agitation, I beg to state that we have observed this matter very closely since the receipt of your letter, and we have not heard one single word which would indicate that there is likely to be any agitation in this state. In fact, we never heard of the Sacco and Vanzetti case until the bomb outrages in Paris, France, and the attempt on Ambassador Herrick's life.

Should anything come to our attention - and we will be on the lookout continuously - same will be reported immediately.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

In Re: Sacco-Vanzetti and Protection of Foreign Representatives Limitation of Armament Conference.

Information having been received to the effect that meetings under the auspices of Sacco-Vanzetti Defense Committee would probably take place at 23 Rutgers Street, and Clinton Hall, New York City, yesterday, I directed the Intelligence Division of this office to have said meetings covered. However, an investigation made showed that no gathering whatsoever was held at either place.

Agent [redacted] informs me that late yesterday afternoon [redacted] telephoned him advising that he had just received information to the effect that a meeting of Anarchists in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti was scheduled to take place at Beethoven Hall, 210 East 5th Street, at 8 P. M.

Agents of the Intelligence Division went to Beethoven Hall where inquiries developed the fact that a committee representing an organization known as "The Trade Union Verbund", had applied for the use of the hall for "Union purposes", and exhibited to the Custodian of the hall a letter signed by Joseph Cohen, of the "Freie Arbeiter Stimme", which letter in substance endorsed the organization.

The Police of the city took prompt measure and detailed a large number of men to cover the meeting, which, however, was not held, although a number of Jewish Anarchists appeared in the near vicinity, the meeting being called off evidently due to the fact that the Police had become aware of its purpose. This meeting was announced by circular during the late afternoon, and according to [redacted] Tresca, Joseph Cohen and other Anarchists were listed as speakers.

A number of meetings are scheduled to be held in this city tomorrow in behalf of the Sacco-Vanzetti Defense, all of which will be covered by representatives of the Intelligence Division.

My dear Mr. Weiss,

I am quoting an editorial version of a report received by me concerning the activities of the Vansetti Group in Providence, R. I. This group was numbered 1st and I thought you would be interested in it. Same, in view of the fact that the activities of this group have taken on an international aspect.

There have already been four meetings here in the forests of Bacco and Vansetti and the speakers at the last two used quite strong language.

Friday night, October 28th, a meeting was held in Carabaldi Hall, the first speaker being Giuseppe Tannucci of 27 Arthur Ave., employed at the Truck Head Club and described as about 26 years old, 150 pounds weight, 5' 8" tall, medium complexion. Demetrio Marvella, of Virginia St., this city, was the next speaker and the last one was Luigi Baruffi, whose address we have been unable to get.

Last evening there was an attempt to hold an open meeting by a man who gave his name as Virginia Della, of Village, Mass., an Italian about 60 years old. He had a some talking before the arrival of the police and after being told that he must stop asked to be allowed to make an explanation in which he urged the Italians to mobilize. No collection was taken at this meeting although a collection was taken at the meeting held Friday evening.

TITLE AND CHARACTER OF CASE: EMILIO CODA, alias EMIL CODA. SP4 clark 9/10/86 COMD # 25704 Boston, Mass.
FACTS DEVELOPED: At Boston, Mass. primary info DATE 1/14/13 BY SP4 clark In the early part of the present year, when the SACCO-VANZETTI DEFENSE COMMITTEE was in need of propaganda and funds, its members decided to choose among the old followers and friends of LUIGI GALLI-ANI a number of experienced organizers and agitators who could tear the country and gather sympathies around the two Italian anarchists, NICOLA SACCO and BARTOLOMEO VANZETTI.
Among several others, there was chosen EMILIO CODA, alias EMIL CODA, a miner of Dillenville, Ohio, and a member of the United Mine Workers of America.
CODA is widely known among the Italian miners in general and among the Italian anarchists in particular for his past activities conducted by him at the time "LA CRONACA SOVVERSIVA" was published in this country. He was, therefore, in the opinion of the leaders of the SACCO-VANZETTI DEFENSE COMMITTEE, an efficient man, who could, better than any other, influence the United Mine Workers of America in the interest of SACCO and VANZETTI.
In March, this year, CODA is found to be a part of the Defense Committee and addressed to all Local Unions of the United Mine Workers of America the following circular: 62 61-126-292 b7c

Brother:-

At the request of a group of workers in various trades in Ohio and Pennsylvania, in the vicinity of Pittsburgh and Steubenville, I have investigated the Sacco-Vanzetti case. The prosecution is undoubtedly a frame-up, perpetrated by the same kind of people who wanted to get Mooney and Billings out of the way, and for the same reason.

Several years ago, I knew Vanzetti, when he worked as a pick-and-shovel man near Pittsburgh. He was an honest hard-working fellow, who did all he could to help make better conditions for labor. He read many books, and thought a great deal.

I have just visited him in Charlestown prison, where he is serving 15 years for a crime he could not have committed. He is the same man that I knew in Pittsburgh, a strong man with courage. Sacco is also that kind of man. I talked with him in jail at Dedham, where he has been lying since May 5th of last year.

Through the efforts of the Boston Central Labor Union and other interested organizations, a ninety-day postponement of the trial has been obtained so that testimony necessary to a fair trial may be brought from Italy.

You have always given generously to help obtain justice for men wrongly accused. You get behind the Mooney case. Now when money is urgently needed for Sacco and Vanzetti, I appeal to you as a fellow member to give all you can spare for their defense.

Fraternally,

EMIL CODA,

Member of the United Mine Workers of America."

Since that time EMILIO CODA has always worked for the agitation of the masses and for the collection of funds for the defense of the two Italian anarchists.

Subsequently he came to Boston and worked in the office of the Defense Committee, his duty being that of attending matters pertaining to committee and to mine workers.

At the time of the United Mine Workers Convention held recently at Indianapolis, Indiana, CODA was delegated by the SACCO-

67C

VANZETTI DEFENSE COMMITTEE to attend the convention and present a motion asking the mine workers to co-operate with the Defense Committee in order to obtain the freedom of SACCO and VANZETTI.

A delegate to that convention, presumably the same Coda, writes to CARLO TRESCA, of New York City, which communication was later published in "IL MARTELLLO", relating, as follows, the deliberation adopted by the United Mine Workers' Convention in the matter of the SACCO-VANZETTI case:

"Indianapolis, Ind.---From many localities there have been received by the presiding chairman of the Miners' Convention vibrating motions in favor of our two persecuted comrades, requesting this union (the miners') to take interest in the Sacco-Vanzetti case. Many of the motions were purporting the fact that it isn't only the danger menacing Sacco and Vanzetti that must be an incitement for us to act, but also the danger and the menace that the conquerors, the masters, having won in the case against these two workers, will suffocate with other frame-ups, the aspirations of the proletariat.

"The various motions were incorporated in one energetic appeal which was read to the Convention. William Ray, vice-president of District No. 6, Ohio, with warm and sympathetic words requests the delegates to invite Emilio Coda who is a member of the U. M. W. of A. for many years, to speak on the matter for the reason that he can competently present the facts as they are, as Coda is one of the many who have dedicated themselves to the defense of the two persecuted workers.

"And Emilio Coda is in the position to explain as he does all the particulars of the tragedy which is developing itself in New England, and with which all workers of all tendencies, breeds and nationalities must seriously occupy themselves if they do not wish to endanger all the conquests gradually attained.

"In the midst of a general attention and a silence almost religious, in his rude form but full of faith and veracity, the speaker relates the history of the persecutions of the radicals; he tells concerning the arrest of Salsedo and his tragic end while in the hands of the Department of Justice; he tells also about the wave of disdain and revolt of free men against the infamy perpetrated by the Department of Justice; explains how Sacco and Vanzetti agitated the masses and invited them to be careful as to prevent the repetition of similar crimes, and how, at the time of their arrest, there was found on them (Sacco and Vanzetti) handbills inviting the Italians to a meeting in which it would have been discussed the arrest and "suicide" of Salsedo. The speaker on that occasion would have been Vanzetti."

The writer of the communication to CARLO TRESCA speaks concerning the trial held at Dedham, Mass., criticising the precautionary measures taken by the authorities, and concludes that:

"The delegates, numbering 2300, approved the action and decided to display activities in the interest of Sacco and Vannetti, and requested the American Federation of Labor to use all its influence in order to assure justice for the two persecuted workers, who, if radicals, are innocent of the crime of which they have been convicted."

After the convention EMILIO CODA returned to Boston, where he is at present. [REDACTED]

At the regular Sunday night meeting of the People's Forum held during the evening of the 15th instant, the above named JOHN NICHOLAS BEFFEL of the Confederated Press, was the principal speaker. A written report on this meeting [redacted] reads as follows:-

[redacted] attended the meeting at the People's Forum last evening, and reports as follows:-

Mr. Ernest Sherwood was chairman of the meeting and he introduced as the principal speaker, John Nicholas Beffel, of the Confederated Press, who said the subject of his address would be 'The Black Robe of New England'. He said in part:- 'I have been in New England for a year now and have been in pretty close contact with the workings of the court in this section; especially one court, the Superior Court in Massachusetts. What I saw happen in that court has lead me to wonder what is behind all the things that happen in all the courts of New England. I speak of one trial, and I refer particularly to the Sacco - Vanzetti trial in Massachusetts. You have heard a great deal about that lately because of the big demonstrations abroad in Europe and in South America. It seems that there is some sort of opinion in Europe that Sacco did not get a square deal, and that you cannot get a square deal. I know some things about courts and I am included very greatly to the thought that a poor man cannot get a square deal.

As a kid I was told that the American Court system was a wonderful system compared with the courts of France. That over in France a man without money had no chance to get a square deal. Here he told a story about a judge in his home town whom he revered and respected and later on in years the Judge was accused of grafting and he told how, in his opinion changed. Here he told about an incident out in California where a 'doddering old Judge' in sentencing some I.W.O. told them to keep out of pool rooms and away from Socialists if they, the prisoners, wanted to keep away from jail. He told a story about the Judge telling the I. W. W. prisoners that all the rich people had their money taken away from them by the income tax collectors.

Well this Sacco - Vanzetti case was one of the rottenest cases I ever came into contact with. I rank it with the Centralia, Washington, case and with the Mooney case in California. Sacco - Vanzetti were convicted partly because they were Italians, partly because they were radicals, and largely because of the attitude of the Judge of the Court. All of the things the Judge said to the detriment of the prisoners are in the record and I will read a few of them for your benefit before the evening is over. Do you think it is a square deal for the State of Massachusetts to try men in cages before they are even convicted. In many cases the prisoner has been in jail for many months, is unkempt and unshaven and in the case of Sacco and Vanzetti with their long hair and unshaven appearance, they made a terrifying appearance before the jurors.

I find in Massachusetts that all state judges are appointed for life. There is no initiative or recall, and only four have ever been impeached for offences committed in office. The judges in Massachusetts are permitted wide discretions and given great power. I will tell you of one case and that is the United Shoe Machinery case in which a judge issued an injunction to prevent legal picketing and worst of all, to prevent collective bargaining on the part of the workers, and at this point he read the wording of the injunction to the audience, which he said was one of the most remarkable documents ever handed down regarding labor. In this decision it said that if the working man did not like their contract with the United Shoe Machinery Company they could retire at their pleasure. It further said that collective bargaining could only produce discontent among the working men.

He also told of how the courts treated 130 defendants in the Lawrence strike in 1912, that the lower court had given the defendants stiff sentences but on appeal to the higher court the sentence was either lightened or not pressed altogether.

The speaker read a number of decisions handed down by the courts which were against the workingmen's rights and also told how in early history the children of the poor were taken away from them and bound over to selectmen and others until they were 21 years old. He reviewed the workings of the old Colonial Courts and told of the decision of the court in the Salem witch cases. He also told of the punishment meted out to the criminals of Colonial days, stating that there were ten crimes punishable by death in those days.

The speaker then went back to the Sacco - Vanzetti trial and read a few of the addresses of Judge Thayer of Webster to the jury, denouncing the defendants as radicals, and asking the Jury to do their duty in accord with the rock-bound traditions of New England, to be loyal to their country and he told of the questioning of the jurors by the Judge and of the defendants by the Judge, who tried to belittle everything about the defendants. He said that Judge Thayer was a great notoriety seeker and was constantly calling for newspaper men while eating his meals to talk over the case with them and give his views for quotation in the press. He also gave several other instances of how judges influence juries in decisions in cases; one in particular asking a man what nationality he was and it looked as though the case was won for the man but when he said he was Jewish the jury went in and returned a verdict of not guilty. This was in a civil case where the man was suing the railroad for an injury.'

Mr. Cook, the anarchist, made the first five minute speech and in his erratic wanderings he said, "We all know that innocent men have been hung because of the courts. We all know that cases are lost before they are even tried when a poor man or a working man is involved. We know that courts were not instituted for justice, but for protection. So I say that the judges are the worst class of criminals there is."

Mr. Staverly and Mr. Thomas Powers also spoke about five minutes and quoted their views on the Lawrence strike.

Copy of this report is being sent to the Boston Office of the Bureau for their information.

Dear Sir:

In Re: Sacco-Vanzetti and Protection of Foreign Representatives, Limitation of Armament Conference.

Concerning the proposed demonstration in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti, I am now advised that the meeting will be held under the auspices of the American Labor Alliance at Central Opera House, on November 25th; that the speakers scheduled to date will include Trepoa, Anter and Elisabeth, Gurley Flynn, Frank Walsh, it is understood, has refused to appear at the meeting, although efforts are being made to persuade him to attend.

At 250 West 25th Street, this evening, a conference will be held at which the final arrangements will be made for the meeting hereinbefore mentioned.

At a meeting held yesterday in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti, at 62 East 106th Street, under the auspices of the Harlem Socialist Educational Center, the attendance was about 40.
Elizabeth Gurley Flynn addressed this small gathering as did Samuel Regensburg, the latter's address being in Yiddish.

A meeting was held at the New Star Casino on East 107th Street, yesterday afternoon, at which the conference for limitation of armament at Washington, was denounced. There were about 500 people present at the meeting, and the collection total, but sixty-four dollars, the Workers League losing $200 on the affair, most of which sum was expended for leaflets announcing the meeting, which were said to have been distributed about the city during the past week. Linggren, secretary of the Workers League, and recently a candidate on the ticket of that organization for City Comptroller, was one of the speakers. A second speaker announced that he was a representative of the Federated Press,
"The Workers International News Service". Both of these men ridiculed the conference at Washington. J. Louis Engdahl, secretary of the Workers Council, made a short address. 61-126-297

It has been reported to this office that the meetings held recently in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti, have proven to be financial losses to the various committees operating

In Re: Sacco-Vanzetti.

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that [redacted] has reported that it is quite apparent that the Russian Anarchists in the East are not lending their aid to the Sacco-Vanzetti Defense, and that as a matter of fact the names of these two Italians are rarely mentioned by any of the members of the United Russian Professional Unions.

The Russian Anarchists are bitterly incensed over the action of the Communist Party throughout the East and are doing everything in their power to weaken that organization. On Sunday next, a conference is to be held in this city at which there is expected to be present, representatives from various mining districts throughout Pennsylvania, who are coming to New York for the purpose of securing such information that will enable them to successfully combat the activities of the Communist Party of America United. Some of these delegates are expected to come on from Shenandoah and Russellton, Pa., and [redacted] will no doubt make a full report concerning the conference.

[redacted] also reports that a former member of the Union of Russian Workers, now in Petrograd, has written a letter, the substance of which is to the effect that before long a successful counter revolution will be launched against the Soviet Government; that the peasants of Russia are becoming strongly antagonistic against the dictatorship of Lenin and Trotsky, and that in all probability efforts will be made to again resume the Monarchist form of Government.

Yours very truly,

He also told the audience to bring pressure to bear upon the authorities demanding the release of Sacco and Vanzetti and all the political prisoners, and to carry the message to their friends' homes, in their organizations and everywhere.

After Biedenkapp finished talking, one Silverman, who was seated in the audience, arose and advised those present not to talk but to act, because they will never receive any justice from the capitalist courts here unless they act and stop talking. He said the workers are being misled by their officials, and that Biedenkapp and Flynn should advise, as well as teach their friends who may be officials of an organization, the necessity of action, because all the workers are waiting for such advice all over.

After the meeting met Silverman and learned he is a member of the Workers Self Educational Circle, of 25 Rutgers Street. He also wrote out on a piece of paper the name of "Reicher" with the same address, and it was later learned that he is better known as Silverman at the address given, which is the headquarters of a radical organization.

FACTS DEVELOPED: Yale afternoon attended Sacco-Vanzetti Protest Meeting held under the auspices of the Harlem Socialist Educational Center, at 62 E. 106th Street, where about 40 people were present. The chairman's name was not announced. Elisabeth Gurley Flynn was announced as the first speaker, and during the course of her talk explained that the purpose of the meeting was to arouse the Jewish workers to the fact that Sacco and Vanzetti, who are facing the electric chair, are not receiving justice and are the victims of the frame-up system, because of the fact that they are class conscious workers and have dared to express their ideas for the overthrow of this present system of society. She went on to state that the American working class is asleep and will never be able to wash away the negligence it has shown towards the class war prisoners. She also said the workers of Europe, including France, Italy, Germany Sweden and England, have protested against the murdering of these two Italians, and in the near future demonstrations will again be held there, for the releasing of all political prisoners in America, while in this country very little thought is given to these workers who are in capitalistic jails being killed and tortured. The time is ripe now for action, the Jewish workers should protest and hold mass demonstrations demanding the immediate release of these two Italians. as talking will not bring results, and they must act quickly.

Radical Activities. - American Labor Alliance.

Today attended meeting of the above, where Elizabeth Gurley Flynn acted as chairman and Patrick McClellan as secretary, and there were about 40 delegates present, representing about 45 different organizations in New York City and Newark, N.J. Will endeavor to secure the names of the organizations, as well as copy of the minutes, as soon as possible.

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn explained why the conference was called, stating same was for the benefit of the new delegates at the meeting and for them to go back to their organizations and have them ask their union to assist in the work planned for the benefit of the two Italians above named.

A motion was made to have a letter sent to all the organizations represented, asking for funds, to assist in the running of the conference, and all the delegates are to see that they secure funds, and that their organizations attend the meetings.

It was also moved to send a letter to the United Hebrew Trades and the Workmens Circle, to have them get behind the conference as they do not have delegates at the conference, and they are needed as a working class organization to demonstrate for the two men wrongly accused.

It was reported that the following speakers were secured for the meeting: E. Owens, [redacted], [redacted] Tresca, Arturo [redacted]

FACTS:

Tonight proceeded to 7th St. and Avenue C for the purpose of attending an open air meeting, but upon arrival learned no meeting was scheduled.

Later visited the 6th Assembly District, Socialist Party Hall, at 7th St. and Avenue C, and found S. Regensberg talking to about 30 children, between the ages of 9 and 18. It was learned that the meeting was being held under the auspices of the Young Peoples Socialist League.

During the course of Regensberg's speech he explained that Sacco and Vanzetti are one of them and that they are the victims of the frame up system, such as Tom Mooney, Gitlow, Debs and hundreds of others, and that the time is not far off when those that are condemning these two Italians will build tombs for them because they are the martyrs of the working class, and that the working class is rising in protest all over the world, demanding the release of these two comrades, and that they, (the audience) should go out and bring pressure to bear, demanding their release, as well as that of political prisoners.

TITLE AND CHARACTER OF CASE:

IN RE: SACCO-VANZETTI DEMONSTRATION - ANARCHIST ACTIVITIES.

FACTS DEVELOPED: At New York.

b7c Agent received a telephone call at his home on this date from Agent [REDACTED] to the effect that word had been passed among the Jewish and Italian Anarchists in New York to gather tonight at Beethoven Hall East 5th St., New York, for the purpose of holding a demonstration in favor of Sacco and Vanzetti. Agent reached the Hall at 7:30 P.M. and was joined by Agent [REDACTED]. There were about twenty-five police and detectives present in charge of [REDACTED].

At eight o'clock a handful of spectators had gathered, made up principally of the Jewish element and among whom Agent recognized many as having been active in the Anarchist movement during the past.

b7c [REDACTED] and the writer went to the manager of the Hall who stated that during this afternoon three persons had come to him and stated they desired to hire the Hall for "union purposes," stating that they represented the Union Tradesverband. They presented a letter on the stationery of the "Freie Arbeiter Stimme," a Jewish Anarchist newspaper in the city, which letter was signed by Joseph Cohen, Manager. The letter stated in effect that the bearers were known to the signer and that they desired to hold a union meeting at the Hall. This letter was turned over and now in the possession of [REDACTED].

At 8:30 P.M. [REDACTED] decided that he would not permit the meeting to be held and ordered all persons out of the Hall, following ing which an iron railing was placed across the stairway and a sign placed thereon reading: "Meeting Called Off." Those who were present at this time filed out of the Hall in an orderly manner and gathered on various corners along Second Avenue indignantly discussing the act. However, there appeared little chance of any demonstration and the police were dispensed with. Agent [redacted] ^{b7c} and the writer made inquiries in the neighborhood as to whose auspices the meeting was to be held under and how notification had been given, but it appears that word was sent from mouth to mouth and that no printed announcement of the meeting had been circulated. Agents discontinued at 9:30 P.M.

Dear Sir:

This is to advise you that at the conference of the American Labor Alliance held at their headquarters on West representing about fifty unions. Patrick McOlellan, President of the United Labor Council, who was secretary of the meeting, claimed to represent twenty-eight unions. Elizabeth Gurley Flynn acted as chairman.

It was decided at the conference that letters be sent to the United Hebrew Trades and the Workmen's Circle, soliciting support for the Sacco-Vanzetti Defense Meeting which is scheduled to be held on November 25th at the Central Opera House, and later it will be arranged to send delegates to both of these organizations asking them for their further support of the meeting.
